

GLOBAL TEXTILE HUB

“Re-imagined” a Collaboration with a Difference

Make the Ordinary Extraordinary
A non-acquisitive Juried Virtual Exhibition

The Global Textile Hub invites you to participate in this 2021 virtual Exhibition

Online Opening Date 11th August 2021

Our aim is to promote the diversity of textile art practices.

The exhibition theme “Make the Ordinary Extraordinary” challenges textile artists from around the world to collaborate with each other or artists from other disciplines.

Timeline:

March 30, 2020 - Call for Entries - Online applications open for Expression of Interest (EOI)/payment of Entry Fee

Sept 1, 2020 - Close of EOI and payment of Entry Fee

April 30, 2021 - Submission Form and images of completed work to be submitted online
(A Dropbox link “Request for Files” will be sent to Entrants on receipt of payment)

August 11, 2021 - Online Gallery Exhibition Opening (to remain available online until March 2022)

Conditions of Entry

Entry Requirements

Entries must be a collaboration of two or more artists, one of the collaborators must be a textile artist.

Expression of Interest and entry payment must be submitted online and received before midnight Sep 30, 2020

Submitted works must have a demonstrable textile element and be the artists/s original design and creation.

The artist warrants that the entry and any materials submitted are original, are the property of the artist/s and do not infringe any third-party rights.

Artists may submit up to three (3) collaborative works. There is a separate payment for each work.

Each work must have been executed in the 12 months prior to the exhibition and not shown in any other exhibition or online prior to submission and the Opening of the Exhibition.

Entries may be shown as “For Sale” in the virtual exhibition. No commission will be collected for any sale of artworks.

Global Textile Hub will not be involved in the sale, other than to provide a catalogue listing of prices.

Any Sales would be finalised directly between the Purchaser and Artist.
